7 YEARS OF FIGHTING FOR JUSTICE & FREEDOM FOR OUR YOUTH

Prison Closed!

The brutal Tallulah youth prison is closed to children forever.

Hundreds of Children Freed!

2000 of our youth were locked up in 1999. Now, there are under 500.

Families and Communities empowered!

FFLIC chapters around the state building strong leaders & communities.

In 2007, we must fight so our youth & communities will be free. Free from prisons, failing schools, violent streets, racist systems & police brutality. Join us! Come hear campaign updates, meet members from across the state, and learn from our amazing guest speakers:

Kim Carter, Director, Time for Change Foundation & Co-Founder, All of Us or None

Kim directs The Time for Change Foundation serving women who are transitioning out of prison and back into the community. She is also a co-founder of All of Us or None, a grassroots, civil rights organization of formerly incarcerated women and men, building political power in communities devastated by mass incarceration.

Norris Henderson, Co-Director of Safe Streets/Strong Communities

Self-educated in criminal law & organizing during his 27 years at Angola State Penitentiary, Norris now directs this grassroots & policy organization dedicated to transforming New Orleans' brutal criminal justice system.

Shareef Cousin, Community Organizer, Fairness for Prisoners Families

Convicted and sentenced to death when he was 16 for a New Orleans murder he did not commit, Shareef spent 4 years on Death Row and another before the Louisiana Supreme Court overturned his conviction. Now 27, Shareef is an organizer with Fairness for Prisoners Families in Atlanta and a full time student at Morehouse College.
